

A 10x10 grid with a complex black pattern of lines. The pattern consists of thick black lines that form a series of interconnected shapes and paths. The lines are drawn on a light gray grid background. The pattern is non-symmetrical and covers a significant portion of the grid area, leaving several empty squares. The lines vary in length and orientation, creating a maze-like structure.