

A scatter plot on a 10x10 grid. The grid is defined by light gray lines. There are 40 data points, each represented by a small circle with a black outline and a white fill. The points are distributed across the grid, with a higher density in the center and fewer points near the edges. The points are scattered, with some clusters and some isolated points.