

A 10x10 grid with thick black lines forming a crossword puzzle layout. The grid is 10 columns wide and 10 rows high. Thick black lines define the boundaries of the puzzle sections. The numbers 2, 3, 4, and 5 are placed in specific cells, indicating the starting points for words. The numbers are: 2 in row 2, column 9; 3 in row 3, column 2 and row 3, column 6; 4 in row 4, column 1; 5 in row 5, column 10 and row 5, column 2.
